Operation Christmas Child - Supporting children around the world. Leaflets will be available from this week at the Church with information about the project and how to complete a shoebox. There will also be a supply of pre-printed shoeboxes available for a 50p donation. Please complete your boxes and bring to Church by the 9th November. Boxes can also be made up online, details are given in the leaflets. More details can be found online, Operation Christmas Child, Shoebox Appeal with more gift ideas for the boxes. There are various ways to support this worthwhile cause besides making up a box, donations towards shipping costs, or donating a few items to include in a box. Any queries please contact Julia Henderson.

The Church Office is no longer routinely open at Trinity on a Monday and Wednesday morning. Please continue to email or phone.

Eco Tip: October

Walking or cycling to your local market to buy local seasonal fruit and veg. grown outdoors in the UK has the lowest of all carbon footprints. A local veg box scheme is a good second best.

SAFEGUARDING. A concern form for anyone to use to log something that does not seem/feel/be right is available to use on the Circuit website or via scanning a QR code on posters displayed at Trinity.
